Running & Winning

On Tuesday, September 24, AAUW Tucson with the League of Women Voters from Greater Tucson, and the YWCA were at Pueblo High School facilitating the 19th annual Running & Winning workshop for junior and senior girl high school students.

With twelve elected officials from local communities, county commissioners, state legislators, and the mayor of Tucson, the event shared inspiring stories from leading women, encouraging the next generation to get involved and make a positive difference in public service.
